(2) A member who wishes to move any motion not included in the preliminary agenda paper or an amendment to any item so included shall give notice thereof to the Secretary not less than ¹seven clear days before the date fixed for the meeting.

(3) The Secretary shall not less than ¹seven clear days before the date fixed for the meeting and in the case of a special meeting with the notice of the meeting, issue a complete agenda paper showing the business to be brought before the meeting.

(4) A member who wishes to move an amendment to any item included in the complete agenda paper, but not included in the preliminary agenda paper shall give notice thereof to the Secretary not less than three clear days before the date fixed for the meeting.

(5) The Secretary shall, if time permits, cause a list of all amendments, of which notice has been given under sub-regulation (4) to be made available for the use of every member:

Provided that the President may, if the Central Council agrees, allow a motion to be discussed at a meeting notwithstanding the fact that notice was received to admit of compliance with this regulation: Provided further that nothing in this regulation shall operate to prevent under special circumstances the reference by the Executive Committee of any matter to the Central Council at a meeting following immediately or soon after the meeting of the Executive Committee to permit of the notice required under this regulation.

7. Admissibility of motion. - (1) The President shall disallow any motion. -

(i) if the matter to which it relates is not within the scope of the Central Council's functions;

(ii) if it raises substantially the same question as a motion or amendment which has been moved or withdrawn with the leave of the Central Council within one year of the date of the meeting at which it is to be moved:

Provided that such a motion may be admitted at special meeting of the Central Council convened for the purpose on the requisition of not less than two thirds of the members of the said Council:

Provided further that nothing in these regulations shall operate to prohibit the further discussion of any matter referred to the Central Council by the Central Government in the exercise of any of its functions under the Act;

(iii) unless it is clearly and precisely expressed and raises substantially one definite issue;

(iv) if it contains arguments, inferences, ironical expressions, imputations or defamatory statements:

Provided that if a motion can be rendered admissible by amendment, the President may in lieu of disallowing the motion admit it in an amended form.

(2) When the President disallows or decides a motion, the Secretary shall inform the member, who gave the notice of the motion of the order of disallowance or as the case may be of the form in which the motion has been admitted.

8. Conduct of business at meetings of Central Council. -(1) Every meeting of the Central Council shall be presided over by the President, or if he is absent, by the Vice-President or, if both the President and the Vice-President are absent, by a Chairperson to be elected by the members present from amongst themselves.

(2) All references in provision to the President shall be read as referring to the person for the time being presiding over a meeting.

9. Quorum for meeting. - If, at the time appointed for a meeting, a quorum is not present, the meeting shall not commence until a quorum is present, and if a quorum is not present, on the expiration of thirty minutes from the time appointed for the meeting or during the course of any meeting, the meeting shall stand adjourned to such future time and date as the President may appoint, and one third of the total members of the Central Council shall constitute a quorum.

10. Voting by show of hands or by ballot. - (1) Every matter shall be determined on a motion moved by a member and put to the Central Council by the President.

Provided that votes shall be taken by ballot if five members so desire and ask for it in writing:

Provided further that if voting has been by show of hands, a division shall be taken if at least one member asks for it.

11. Identical motions. -When motions identical in purport stand in the names of two or more members, the President shall decide whose motion shall be moved and the other motion or motions shall thereupon be deemed to be withdrawn.

12. Motion to be seconded. - (1) Every motion or amendment shall be seconded and if not seconded shall be deemed to have been withdrawn.

(2) When a motion has been seconded it shall be stated from the Chair.

(3) When a motion has been thus stated, it may be discussed as a question to be resolved either in the affirmation or in the negative or any member may, subject to regulations 13 and 14, move an amendment to the motion:

Provided that the President shall not allow an amendment to be moved which, if it has been a substantive motion, would have been inadmissible under regulation 5.

13. Amendment must be relevant to motion. - (1) An amendment must be relevant to and within the scope of the motion to which it is proposed.

(2) An amendment may not be moved which has merely the effect of a negative vote.

(3) The President may refuse to put to the Central Council an amendment which in his opinion is frivolous.

14. Motion how to be amended. - A motion may be amended by the omission, insertion, addition or substitution of word or figure.

15. Proposal in relation to motion. - When a motion or amendment is under debate, no proposal with reference thereto shall be made other than an amendment of the motion or the amendment as the case may be, as provided in regulation 12.

16. Motion, etc. how to be withdrawn. - A motion or an amendment which has been moved and seconded, shall not be withdrawn save with the leave of the Central Council which shall not be deemed to be granted, if any member dissents from the granting of leave.

17. Order of speaking on motion. - When a motion has been moved and seconded, members other than the mover and the seconder may speak on the motion in such order as the President may direct:

Provided that the seconder of a motion or of an amendment may, with the permission of the President, confine himself to seconding the motion or amendment, as the case may be, and speak thereon at any subsequent stage of the debate.

18. Objection, etc. by President. - During the meeting, the President may, at any time, make any objections or suggestions or give information to elucidate any point to help the members in the discussion.

19. Members how to speak on motion or amendment. - (1) The mover of an original motion, and if permitted by the President, the mover of any amendment, shall be entitled to a right of final reply, and no other member shall speak more than once to any debate except with permission of the President, for the purpose of making a personal explanation or of putting a question to the member than addressing the Central Council:

Provided that any member at any stage of the debate may rise to a point of order, but no speech shall be allowed on that point:

Provided further that a member who has spoken on a motion may speak again on the amendment subsequently moved to the motion.

(2) No member shall, save with the permission of the President, speak for more than five minutes:

Provided that the mover of a motion when moving the same may speak for ten minutes.

(3) A speech shall be strictly confined to the subject matter of the motion or amendment on which it is made.

(4) Any motion or amendment standing in the name of a member who is absent from the meeting or unwilling to move it, may be brought forward by another member with the permission of the President.
